FOR A PERMISSION FOR A MARRIAGE TO BE CELEBRATED BY A CATHOLIC PRIEST OR DEACON
USING THE CATHOLIC RITE OF MARRIAGE IN A PLACE OTHER THAN THE PARISH CHURCH

- The Catholic Priest or Deacon is to request this Permission from Place on behalf of the Catholic party/parties. He is to submit with this Form MC a separate letter explaining the reason for the request and expressing his reasons for supporting the request. The Priest or Deacon is also to provide a detailed description of the Place where the Marriage will be celebrated. Examples of sufficient reasons for this request are: distance from the parish church, the parish church is too small, the parish church is being renovated, the parish church is unavailable, members of the non-Catholic party's family will not attend if the Marriage is celebrated in the parish church (but then explain why they will attend the Marriage celebration when performed by a Catholic minister), etc.
- If the requesting Minister is not the Pastor of the place where the Marriage will be celebrated, a letter from the Pastor of the place supporting the request is to be submitted.
